

I'm asking that LPFM stations are NOT given a priority over the current translator service. K-Love has affected my thinking and gives me positive attitude throughout the day, which effects how I interact with other community people. I drive without a road rage mentality and I'm confident that other K-Love drivers are effected the same way.